Titre : 09. Big City Girl

You, Smalltown boy,
Watching through the window

You, yeah

Take this black case and leave this place for a new home
You'll never be alone again cause i'm with you

Smalltown boy
Watching through the window, yeah

You have my love
You have my love
You

You have my love
You have my love
You

Mother will surely understand why you leave her
No more rain and no more wind on your sad face
You smile Smalltown boy

Because you have my love
You have my love

You

You have my love

You have my love

You

Smalltown boy
