Once again i'm all alone
In this place where i wait for a sign
You are there on a different island
Seeking for the time to come
I am here i'm waiting for
The time when you wanna be my friend
Will you come and will you hit my soul,
Eat my love and my tray

Refrain:

Bursting all the way on the walls of my light
Carrying you when i am none
You will try to break me and
You are there and i am here
Sitting in the dark

Once again i'm all alone
In this place where i wait for a sign
You are there on a different island
Seeking for the time to come
I am here i'm waiting for
The time when you wanna be my friend
Will you come and will you hit my soul,
Eat my love and my tray

Refrain:

Bursting all the way on the walls of my light
Carrying you when i am none
You will try to break me and
You are there and i am here
Sitting in the dark
